Evangelical School for The Young Years offers an excellent preschool program for children three and four years of age. Children need to be three by September 1st to register for the program.

There are three classrooms devoted to the program. Each of the three rooms has a specific purpose. The children will have the opportunity to visit each room every day of school with their two teachers. The three rooms are art, centers and gross motor. The children also have a snack each day.

Highlights of the preschool program:

- There are two teachers per class.
- Class sizes are limited to sixteen for three-year old students and twenty-one for four-year old students.
- Classes rotate through three rooms, each with a specific purpose.
- A Growth Book is developed for each individual student throughout the year and discussed with parents at Parent-Teacher conferences in the spring.
- Goals for the program are aligned with the Illinois State Early Learning and Developmental Standards.
- Field trips are planned for the four-year old program and an end of the year field trip for the entire school.
- Students have the opportunity to visit the school library once a month.
- Two-day and three-day morning programs are offered for three-year old students.
- Three-day and five-day morning day programs are offered for four-year old students.
- Three-day and five-day all day programs are offered for both three-year old and four-year old students.
